

In a bid to heal a Congressional rift in its support for Israel created by Bibi Netanyahu's unprecedented electoral campaign address to a joint session of Congress,

Secretary of State John Kerry has lashed out at the UN saying that “the UN's obsession against Israel undermines the credibility of the international organization”. Kerry went on to say that the US will consider economic sanctions against all member nations of the UN until they come to their senses.

CCN

The Cat Cartoon Network
Fair and Nuanced
All the rats fit to trap