

Once Upon A Time

John Calvin and Ayn Rand were joined in unholy matrimony at the Bunny Ranch in Nevada.

They spawned a vast chorus of magically deformed creatures including Scott, Rick, Mitch and Chris Who were predestined to be the governors of Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana and New Jersey. It was clear to the people (Reprobates) that they were among the Elect since they all scored in the upper 95th percentile on standardized tests measuring greed, servility, duplicity and insensitivity.
