

Following his launch of both of his shoes toward President Bush at a Baghdad news conference, the Shite journalist Muntader al-Zaidi has been embraced by his Sunni countrymen who call for his immediate release.

In a related development, Baydan Shoes, the Turkish manufacturer of the Ducati Model 271, now renamed "The Bush Shoe", has been swamped with orders for 300,000 pairs of the immortalized model in the first seven days since the incident. The company has added 100 workers to meet the demand.
