

NEWS of ACQUALORETO for the Wider Circle

Thus far, 2017 has seen a lot of activity in and around Acqualoreto. Rebecca and Matthew Truscott, two classical musicians from London, capped their year-long sabbatical in Collelungo with a concert of baroque music in the Sala Comunale of Todi on March 19th, replicated the following day in Avigliano Umbro. They were joined by their frequent collaborators, the soprano Kate Semmens and harpsicordist Steven Devine.

In June there was a convention, organized and hosted by Mario Santoro, of the Todi Circle, a group of people from around the world, notable for their activity in the world of photography. They ended their week long conference in the piazza of Acqualoreto, making the June 16th Happy Hour turnout the largest in our ten year history. Their visit coincided with the return of an unusual number of regulars together with many guests of residents, to bring the number of attendees to over sixty.

Voloevento, a new festa conceived and directed by Giuseppe Carducci of Tuscolano, celebrated its second year, livening up the weekend extending from the end of June to the start of July. Activities such as conferences and exhibits of kites and drones, art competitions and exhibits, and jazz concerts were spread around the three villages of Tuscolano, Melezzole and Acqualoreto.

As we prepare to send this out to the wider circle, the 2017 festa of Acqualoreto, which will run from August 10th through August 15th, is being set up and we hope that all of you in the area can come to some of our events.

While we in Acquafredda tend to focus on our festa, there are other worthwhile events in the area. In Todi a series of classical music concerts extends from August 4th through August 17th with concerts every night at 21:00 in the Palazzo Vignola. For information see <https://www.facebook.com/todimusicmasters/photos/pcb.888581447956124/888581057956163/?type=3&theater> Other concerts and master classes are being held at the Liceo Classico. Check at the Pro Todi Office for times and dates or visit <http://www.todifestival.it/>.

Later in September we're hoping that Rebecca and Matthew Truscott will be back in the area for a series of classical concerts with some of their musical colleagues from London. Arrangements are yet to be finalized but if the details can be arranged, these should be concerts not to be missed.
