

Mr. President,
A new study shows that
with the current deficits, to balance the budget in 2040, either taxes will have to be doubled or spending cut in half.
All other Presidents
who have led the nation to war have raised taxes.
Why not you?

I don't wanna take money out of the pockets of hard working Americans. They know how to make the economy work better than any government bureaucrats like us.
