

RUMOR #4

Following on the success of its first recruitment lottery, and reaching a little deeper into its bag of tricks, the DOD will offer the services of Jeff Gannon, aka James Guckert, the ex-Marine and famous former White House correspondent for Talon News Service, who has never yet been indicted for anything, as another grand prize.

Jeff will provide a personal guided tour of the White House, including the press room, the gym and the sauna, and will introduce the lucky winner to Scott McClellan and all his other good friends in the White House. If the winner displays the proper attitude, he or she will be allowed to attend a prayer breakfast with and for Dick Cheney and Karl Rove.
