

TOP REPUBLICANS GATHER TO ESTABLISH 2014 POST-CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION STRATEGY

It looks like we might lose Mitch but we should get control of both Houses of Congress.

Good, we can then impeach the Marxist Black Muslim Fascist and his smiley sidekick and let our boy Johnny front the show until we get Scott or Paul in there in '16.

Yes, we could do that but there might be some backlash for 2016. Control of the news only gets you so far.

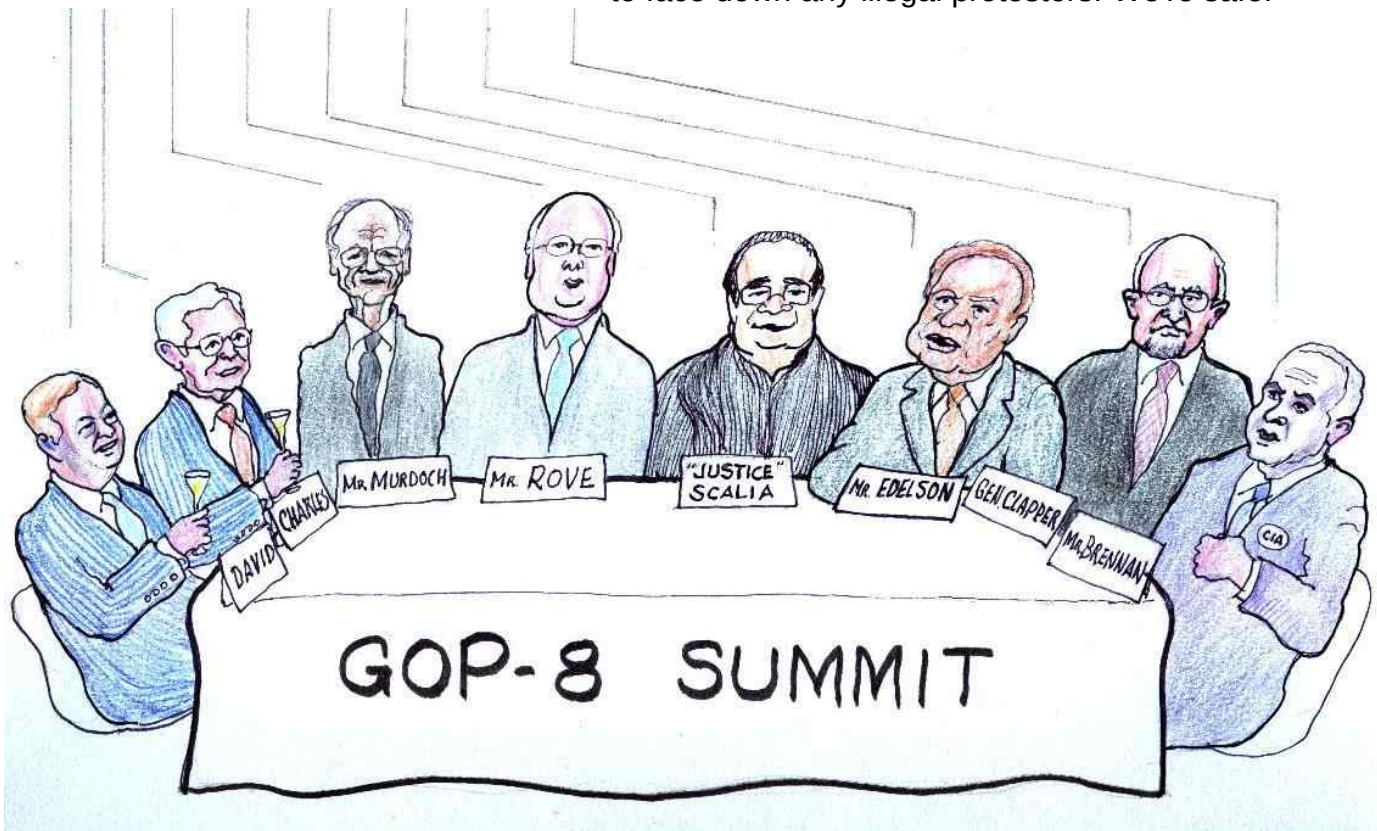

OK, but with another two years to gerrymander, we should be able to get the presidency with 30% or less of the vote.

We've done enough from the bench with Citizens United and McCutcheon. Now the ball's in your court.

Unfortunately, our current batch of candidates have neither brains nor charisma and some could manage to lose against all odds.

We could have a problem! The safest course would be to declare a national emergency and cancel the elections.

Local police departments are well-armed and prepared to face down any illegal protesters. We're safe!
