

AT THE OIL INDUSTRY SUMMIT

Gentlemen, You'll just have to do more to alleviate the oil shortages that have resulted from our necessary sanctions on the evil empire. For our part, we're negotiating with Venezuela for the release of your representatives, and other criminals that they're holding, in exchange for our allowing them to sell their oil to us to ease the shortage.

With petroleum prices soaring over $100/barrel, Big Oil agrees to do whatever it takes to pump more oil.
